Sixth Annual Spring Break Cowboy Camp

March 15th – 19th

C-Arrow Stables is introducing their sixth annual Spring Fling.

A place where children can come and enjoy the outdoors, animals and riding horses.

A place where they can meet new friends or get reacquainted with past buddies.

A place where fun and ambition spell success.

A place where your child can feel responsible and accepted for the great person they are.

A place that teaches versatility and encourages creativity.

C-Arrow Stables is that and so much more...

The spring break riding camp will be full of riding activities, lessons, and trail rides to help strengthen the skills for those that have experience and introduce the inexperienced to a new passion for the love of horse back riding.

Children from the age of five to eighteen years are encouraged to participate and try their hand at the sport of 'Rodeoing'. Cowboys & Cowgirls will learn how to lasso a cow, run a barrel pattern and tie a goat !!

Ranch hands will experience feed management skills, mucking stalls, grooming and total health care of their horse, proper safety amongst the horses, tack care and assembly of tack, as well as proper horsemanship skills once they are mounted.

Cowboy Camp runs March 15th - March 19th.

Camp begins at 9:00 a.m. and ends at 3:00 p.m. every afternoon.

Campers are required to wear cowboy boots with a 1" heel and appropriate attire for horseback riding and of course the weather. Helmets are provided and are mandatory during riding activities.

Ranch hands need to bring their lunch each day as the cook is on strike...
